

Portfolio
melinavaldata.com

Melina Valdata is a visual communication designer educated between Italy and Switzerland, combining research with graphic design, working across editorial design, visual identities, and digital media. Particularly interested in the relationship between communication, visual culture, and technology, developing coherent visual systems across physical and digital contexts.

Education

Basel Academy of Art and Design HGK, FHNW
Master of Arts in Digital Communication Environments
Thesis: Reading Machines - Exploring Text and the Limits of Machine-generated Meaning
Basel, Switzerland ▪ 2024 - 2026

Politecnico di Milano, School of Design.
Bachelor's Degree in Communication Design
Milan, Italy ▪ 2021 - 2024

Awards

Il tempo della pietra ▪
Winner in the Communication Category, [Manlio Armellini Competition - Cineteca CAI] 2023

Features

[Dal Mio Occhio] in Tacit Narratives.
Tank, HGK Basel
2026

Experience

Lateral Biz Creative Hub ▪ Graphic Design Intern.

Supported the development of visual identities, graphic systems, and digital content.
Collaborated on the creation of materials for social media, web and video as well as physical products such as packaging and wayfinding.
Milan, Italy ▪ February 2024 - May 2024

Freelance Graphic Designer

Development of visual communication projects for private clients and small organisations. Design and development of websites. Creation of digital content and support for social media communication. Management of projects from concept development to final delivery.
2023 - Current

Contacts

melinavaldata@gmail.com
+39 3334001130
Milan, Italy.
Basel, Switzerland.

360FX Table Top Studio ▪ Junior Producer Intern

Supported the organisation and coordination of productions. Assisted in managing relationships with clients and suppliers throughout different stages of production.
Milan, Italy ▪ January 2022 - March 2022